

2007 Culture of Data: What Does It All Mean?

Friday, October 12, 2007

2007 Culture of Data Program

- Agenda
- Planning committee
- Poster abstracts
- Session descriptions
- Speaker Bios
- Sponsor list

Plenary Panel: Using Data to Take the Next Step

- Patricia Valverde, “Service and Research” (112 KB pdf)
- John Steiner, “Using Stories to Disseminate Research Findings” (66 KB pdf)
- Lyn Kathlene, “Connecting Colorado: Overcoming the Disconnects that Lead to Health Disparities” (370 KB pdf)

Breakout Sessions

Track 1: Toolkits/databases:

- 1A: Alok Sarwal, Ralph Kennedy, Jodi Drisko, “Community Strategies for Data Collection”
- 2A: Colleen Goodman, “Quick Health Data Online: A Tool to Identify and Highlight Disparities” (700 KB pdf)
- 3A: Jeff Bontrager, “Access to data on the Internet: A Gentle Introduction” (50 KB pdf)

Track 2: Grant writing and evaluation

- 1B: Alyson Shupe, “Making data make sense: basic concepts in biostatistics” (939 KB pdf)
- 2B: Victoria Baker, “Frameworks that support your work: Models for the elimination of health disparities” (1.94 MB pdf)
- 3B: KaraAnn Donovan and Yvonne Kellar-Guenther, “Writing clear objectives” (336 KB pdf)

Track 3: Models that worked

- 1C: Martha Tenney, “Integrating America on the Move in Health Care Settings Serving Diverse Populations” (5.99 MB pdf)
- 2C: Holly Whitesides, “Using an Interactive Voice Response System to Survey Community Health”
- 3C: Mandy Graves, Jeanette Waxmonsky, Olga Belikova, “We Want to Quit Smoking. We Need to Quit Smoking. We Can Quit Smoking. A Practical Mental Health Consumer Data Driven Model!” (481 KB pdf)